LONDON, FRIDAY, Auguſt 28, 1730. NUMB. XX.

FRIDAY, Auguſt 21.

The following, being of ſuch univerſal Concern to this City and its Neighbourhood, it cannot be made too public.

WHEREAS in the laſt Seſſions of Parliament, an Act was made for the better Regulation of the Coal Trade, and an Abſtract of the Clauſes therein, which relate to Juſtice in the Admeaſurement of Coals, with the Penalties on Tranſgreſſors, was, by Order of the Ld. Mayor and Court of Aldermen of London, publiſhed laſt July, and affixed at ſundry public Places near the Water-Side.——As this Law has been calculated by the Perſons who ſollicited for it, to ſecure to the Buyers their juſt Meaſure, both from on Board and on Shore, if the Execution of the ſame be duly inforced, it will prove of very great Service to the Inhabitants; and as it will put an effectual Check to all clandeſtine Practices, it will at the ſame Time give Encouragement to Fair Traders.——It is therefore hoped, that all Perſons, as well for their own Sakes as for a Public Good, will, as much as in them lies, be aiding and aſſiſting to the Execution of this Act.——It is to be noticed, that before the Commencement of this Act, many Dealers in Coals, and many public Carmen, did uſe Sacks for the carrying of Coals which could not contain three Buſhels, and ſome but two Buſhels and a Half, or leſs, which gave Opportunity for many Frauds and Deceits on the Buyers, who many of them were ready to believe, that all Coal Sacks were of equal Bigneſs, and finding their Coals brought home to them, ſometimes 14 Sacks in a Cart from the Pool, did conclude they had vaſt Meaſure, when at the ſame time they were greatly defrauded.——Now as the Vatt by which Coals are meaſured on Board Ship, anſwers exactly to nine Buſhels, and the Chaldron containing 36 Buſhels, if all Sacks uſed for carrying any Coals whatſoever be of one Size, and are capable of containing three Buſhels each, it will not be poſſible for any Seller of Coals to conceal his Deceit from the Buyer, as he could do by the Uſe of ſmall and irregular Sacks, and every Buyer may very nearly judge for himſelf.——It is to anſwer this and other good Purpoſes, that this Act directs, that all Dealers in, and Carriers of Coals, ſhall uſe Linnen Sacks of 50 Inches in Length and 26 Inches in Breadth, when new, lawfully ſealed, and no others, under the Penalty of 20s. for each Sack not ſealed according to this Act, which Sacks, even after ſhrunk by wear, will contain full three Buſhels, or more.——N. B. All Sack-Makers are prohibited making any Coal-Sacks of leſſer Dimenſions than thoſe above deſcribed, and a Penalty of 50l. is laid on any Perſon who ſhall alter any Coal-Buſhel, or Coal-Sack, in order to make the ſame to contain leſs, after the ſame have been ſealed or marked.——In this Act a Proviſo is made, that Conſumers may fetch their own Coals home, without being obliged to uſe ſuch Sacks as are before-mentioned, the true Intent and Meaning of which Clauſe was ſolely in Favour to Brewers, and other large Conſumers of Coals, Country Gentlemen and others who had accuſtomed to have their Coals brought home in Country Carts, or in their own Sacks.

Yeſterday at a Court of Aldermen held at Goldſmith's-Hall, the City Seal was put to an Agreement for the Payment of 65l. per Ann. to Mrs. Twiſleton (mentioned in our laſt) out of St. Bartholomew's Hoſpital, during her Life, in Conſideration of 13000l. by her given to the ſaid Hoſpital, viz. 1000l. to the Houſe, and 300 towards the New Buildings.

The ſame Day, the Committee of Juſtices appointed at the laſt Weſtminſter Quarter-Seſſions, met at the Veſtry Room of St. Paul's Covent-Garden, when our matchleſs Heroine Mary Harvey, al. Maccaig, of whom we lately took ſuch particular Notice, preſented a Petition to the ſaid Juſtices, by the Hand of her Siſter Iſabella Eaton, Keeper of the Crown Tavern in Sherrard-Street, acknowledging her inſolent Behaviour to the Court, and praying that ſhe might be admitted to Bail: But the Juſtices, inſtead of granting the Requeſt, ſent a Warrant of Detainer to the Keeper of the Gate-Houſe, who has her in Durance, ſhe being charged on the Oath of one Mr. Kingge, a German, with receiving his Diamond Ear Rings, valued at 25l. knowing them to be ſtolen, and for inſiſting on 15 Guineas for reſtoring the ſame; which is Death by a Statute of the 5th of Q. Anne, and on which our late Mr. Peachum, otherwiſe called Jonathan Wilde, was convicted, and ſent away out of this ſinful World by the very ſame Vehicle he had taken ſuch Care to procure for ſo conſiderable a Number of his Pupils.——Mrs. Harvey is on Monday to be packed away to Newgate: And the exquiſite Mrs. Mary Sullivan very luckily abſconds, on this very Account, otherwiſe ſhe would infallibly be ſent to keep her Company.

From Dublin, under the 15th Inſt. they write, that a new Band of Free-Booters appears, very much infeſting the Roads leading to that City. Among other Exploits, they lately borrowed from a certain Brigadier his Purſe with 50 Guineas, alſo his Watch: But as he ſeemingly parted with this Moveable not without the utmoſt Reluctance, thoſe Gentlemen of the Pad returned it to him with ſo good a Grace, that, tho' ſome of them are ſince taken, this grateful Officer generouſly refuſes to proſecute.

Yeſterday, the Hon. Col. Rob. Johnſon ſet out for Windſor, to receive his Inſtructions and take Leave of his Majeſty, he being on his Departure for his Government of South Carolina; his Majeſty's Ship the Fox being now ready for his Reception at Deptford, with whom the Indian Princes will imbark in a few Days.

John Trumball, who was executed at Kingſton on Saturday laſt for the Highway, confeſſed, before he was turned off, that he had been guilty of ſeveral Robberies, in Company with Franklin, who was admitted Evidence againſt him; and alſo with Galtey and Sparrow, who ſome Time ſince broke out of the Cells in Newgate, when under Condemnation, and have not ſince been heard of.

Caſual. Wedneſday laſt, an elderly Woman dropped down dead in Maggot's Court, near St. James's Church.——Yeſterday the Body of a Man, dreſſed in a Sailor's Habit, was ſeen floating down the River, below Bridge; and the Day before, the Body of another Man, who had no Breeches on, above Bridge.——The ſame Day a Boy of 14 was drowned in the Thames, as he was waſhing himſelf near Somerſet-Stairs.

Rob. &c. Tueſday Even. Mr. Shaw, of Southwark, coming from Croydon, near Briſtow Cauſeway, was, by two Foot-pads, robbed of a Silver Watch, half a Guinea and ſome Silver: They made him diſmount, and turned his Horſe looſe. Yeſterday, about Four in the Morn. the Cirenceſter and Newbury Stage-Coaches were robbed, by two Highwaymen, between Turnham-Green and Brentford: The Cirenceſter Coach had been robbed about a Week before at the ſame Place——The ſame Day Tho. Byros was committed to New-Priſon, for breaking into the Houſe of Tho. Buckelton, and ſtealing divers Goods of Value. To-morrow he is to be removed, with ſeveral others, to Newgate.——John Dawſon is committed to Newgate, for ſtealing a 30l. Note.——Peter Baker is alſo ſent to New-Priſon, being charged with ſeducing the Wife of one Bright to rob her Husband: And the condeſcending Mrs. Bright is conducted to Tothill Fields Bridewell.——Francis Dean is removed from Chelmsford to Newgate, for robbing his Maſter; having committed the Fact in this County.

Pref. On Tueſday laſt, Mr. Guy Stone was admitted and ſworn one of his Majeſty's Meſſengers in Ordinary, in the room of Capt. John Cooper, Commander of the Townſhend Packet-Boat, that ſails between Falmouth and Corunna.——Dr. Tenniſon, Chaplain in Ordinary to his Majeſty, and a Prebendary of Canterbury, is appointed Biſhop of Oſſory, in Ireland, in the room of Dr. Tho. Veſey, deceaſed.

Mar. From Lynn Regis we learn, that the Son of John Goodings, Eſq; who had the 20,000l Ticket, was lately married to the Daughter of Sir Peter Symonds, an eminent Brewer of Norwich, a 15,000l. Fortune.——And from Exeter, that Mr. Cha. Baker, a very noted Attorney of that City, was lately married to Miſs Ingleton, a deſerving young Gentlewoman.

Deaths. Early Yeſterday Morn. died, after 17 Days Illneſs, of a Fever, at his Houſe Little Eaſtcheap, Mr. Jacob Wyan, an eminent Mercer, and Trader to the Weſt-Indies. It is thought that, tho' he was in very good Circumſtances, his being bound at the Cuſtom-houſe for a Virginia Merchant, who died inſolvent a few Years ſince, made him uneaſy, and did not a little contribute to his Illneſs: And that Mr. John Askew, a Penſilvania Merchant, who died about a Month ago, owed his Death, in a great Meaſure, to the ſame Cauſe, being unfortunately bound for the ſame Perſon.——Laſt Night late, died, at his Lodgings in St. James's Street, of the Gout in his Stomach, Chriſtopher Fitzgerald, Eſq; late a Commiſſioner of his Majeſty's Wine-Licences in Ireland.

SATURDAY, Auguſt 22.

At a Veſtry held at St. Margaret's Weſtminſter, it has been unanimouſly agreed, that the Pariſh Pall, which was formerly let at 10s. each Funeral, for the Benefit of the Poor of that Pariſh, ſhould for the future be let at only 5s. and that a printed Order, ſpecifying the ſame, ſhould be affixed on the Church Doors, to prevent the Impoſitions of Undertakers; and it is believed other Pariſhes will follow their Example.

Juſtice Jenniſon, who lately cauſed Mr. Hen. Mould, the Attorney, to be put in the Stocks in Chancery-Lane, for Swearing, is, for the Damage and Coſts thereof, purſuant to a Verdict obtained againſt him, carried in Execution to the New Jail in Surrey, where we hear he has acted as a Juſtice of the Peace.

Yeſterday Morn. two private Centinels were whipped on the Parade in St. James's Park; one for abuſing his Colonel; the other (a ſhameleſs Varlet!) for getting drunk on his Duty at Windſor, ſtripping himſelf ſtark naked, and running among ſeveral Ladies of Quality.

His Majeſty's Ship the Hawk brought into Hull a ſmall Dutch Veſſel, with 149 Half Anchors of Brandy, three large Bags of Tea, and four Sacks of Malt, all which are put into his Majeſty's Warehouſe.

" As the deceaſed Perſon who wrote what is termed the Free-
" Maſons OATH, publiſhed in our laſt (together with a

I Promiſe, in the Preſence of Almighty God, and this Worſhipful Aſſembly, that I will conceal, and not reveal the Secrets or Secrecy of Maſons or Maſonry, what I know now, or what I ſhall hereafter: And that I will neither write them, mark them, print them, nor engrave them, by any Letter or Character, upon any thing moveable or immoveable; and I will neither ſpeak them, rehearſe them, or divulge them, to Man, Woman, or Child, ſo that they may be unlawfully known, unleſs of a Brother, and that upon due Examination had of the Signs and Tokens of his Entrance: And if I fail in any of theſe, I promiſe to ſubmit my Throat to be cut, my Tongue to be torn from the Roof of my Mouth, my Heart to be plucked from the Left-Breaſt, and buried in the Sands of the Sea, where the Tide ebbs and flows twice in twenty-four Hours, my Bones to be dug up and burnt to Aſhes, and then ſifted over thoſe Seas, where the four Winds blow, that they may be diſperſed, and there be no more remembrance of me.

Rob. &c. Yeſterday Morn. early, ſeveral Higlers, coming from Hertford, were robbed, by three Foot-pads, between Highgate and Holloway, of about 13s.——The ſame Morn. about Three, the Exeter, Salisbury, and Southampton Coaches were robbed, on Hounſlow Heath, by one Highwayman.——The ſame Day Sutton the Prize-Fighter was committed to Surrey-Jail, for deſperately wounding ſeveral Women, in the Mint, with his Sword, and in particular one Woman, who has received a dangerous Wound in her Thigh.—" I am very ſorry to find our magnanimous Gladia-

Pref. Laſt Week the Rev. Dr. Waterland was collated to the Archdeaconry of Middleſex, by the Ld. Bp. of London, whoſe Son, as we are well informed, is deſigned for the Vicarage of Kenſington, as ſoon as he ſhall be of full Age for it.——Edw. Edlin, of the Middle-Temple, Eſq; is appointed Chief-Baron of his Majeſty's Exchequer-Court in Scotland.——The Rev. Mr. Rob. Fiſh's Preſentation paſſed the Great Seal Yeſterday Morn. appointing him Rector of Kirby-Underdale in the County and Dioceſe of York, vacant by the Non-reſidence of the laſt Incumbent.——Alſo, laſt Thurſday paſſed the Seal, his Majeſty's Grant of the Place of Houſe-keeper at Somerſet-Houſe, with a Salary of 200l. per Ann. to Mrs. Campbell.——The ſame Day Sam. Underhill, Eſq; Mr. Rob. Hall, and Mr. Rich. Bridgeman were approved Governors of St. Bartholomew's Hoſpital.——Capt. Edw. Vernon, Mem. of Parl. for the Borough of Penryn in Cornwall, is made one of the Deputy-Lieuts. of Weſtminſter, under his Grace the D. of Newcaſtle, Ld. Lieut. of the ſaid City and Liberty.——Mr. Wm. Hucks, Deputy King's-Waiter, is made a Land-Waiter at the Cuſtom-Houſe, in the room of Mr. John Child, of Hackney, deceaſed.

Mar. —— Orrery, Eſq; was Yeſterday married, at Iſleworth in Middleſex, to Mrs. Nappier, a rich Widow of a very worthy Character.

Deaths. At Paris, about ten Days ſince died, Maurice Hunt, of Cavendiſh-Square, Eſq; a young Gentleman poſſeſſed of a very conſiderable Eſtate; but to whom he has left it is not yet known.——And at Dublin, the 13th Inſt. died, of a Dropſy and Conſumption, the Rev. Mr. Rob. Dougat, Miniſter of St. Andrew's and St. Mark's, Chanter of St. Patrick's, and Keeper of the public Library. The Scarves and Hatbands uſed at this Funeral were of the Manufacture of that Kingdom.

MONDAY, Auguſt 24.

It is confirmed from Windſor-Caſtle, that the Expreſs who arrived from France laſt Friday, brought Count Broglio (his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty's Embaſſador at our Court) the agreeable Tidings of the Duke d'Anjou's Birth: And that her Gallic Majesty is as well as can be expected of a Person in her Condition.

Saturday Morn. last, Capt. Younger, of the Nelson from Virginia, now lying at King's Stairs, Rotherhith, as he was rumaging his Ship's Hold, found the shed Coat of a Rattle-Snake, of about 11 Feet; and soon after, to his no small Surprise, he perceived the Owner of it not far distant: The Snake is still under some Lumber.

From Cambridge they write, that Dr. Green, of Clare-Hall in that University, and Author of the celebrated GREENIAN Philosophy, who lately died there, has made the Master, with three Fellows of Clare-Hall, Dr. Bentley, and three other Heads of Colleges his Executors, and has bequeathed all his Estate, to the Amount of about 2000l, to Clare-Hall, on the following Conditions. 1. They are to publish all his Posthumous Works. 2. They are to get his Body anatomized, and to hang his Skeleton at the Head of a Class of Books which he had presented to the Hall Library just before he died. He has likewise ordered Monuments to be erected in five several Places, with long Epitaphs he has left to be inserted on each of them: And in case those of Clare-Hall do not execute this his Will, his Effects are to go to St. John's College; and if they refuse, to any other of the respective Colleges that will undertake its full Execution.

And from the same Place we are also assured, that Dr. Hawkins of Pensans in Cornwall has resigned his Mastership of Pembroke-Hall to the Rev. Dr. Long, who was formerly his Tutor, and Fellow of that College; and that he has likewise promised to settle, with all convenient Speed, the Perpetuity of his great Living of Bradwell juxta Mare in Essex upon the said College, reserving only to himself the Right of the first Presentation, in Favour of Mr. Jefferies, one of the present Senior Fellows.

Friday last the Coroner's Inquest sat upon the Body of Mr. Lynch, who was killed by Mr. Murphy, in a Duel, at Chiswick, on the preceding Wednesday, and brought in their Verdict Manslaughter.—Both these Gentlemen were Natives of Ireland.

M. Compagnot, a noted Engineer of Paris, has invented a Machine, for which the King has granted him a Patent, his Majesty and the whole Court having first seen it work at Compiegne, and he having produced a Certificate from the Academy of Sciences. This Machine, with the Assistance of one Man, or two at most, does all that can be performed by Water Mills; and among other Things, blows a Pair of Forge Bellows, and strikes 600 Strokes in an Hour, with a Hammer weighing 1000 or 1500*lb*. Weight, so that with this Machine the Workers at Forges may work in any Weather, even in Frost or Drought.

Yesterday the Court went into a six Weeks Mourning for the Dowager Dutchess of Brunswick.

Saturday last, Afternoon, the Ld. Mayor went to Smithfield, with his usual Attendence, to proclaim Bartholomew Fair. His Ldship stopped under Newgate, and Mr. Pitts the Keeper of that Prison, drank to him in a Cool-Tankard, according to ancient Custom.—After the said Proclamation in Cloath-Fair, Capt. Shackleton had the Honour of drinking Part of a Bottle of Wine, in the said Place, with his Ldship and the two Sheriffs.

Wednesday last, at an annual Meeting of a Society of Gentlemen, held at Oxford, the Marq. of Blandford being there, and several Persons of Distinction belonging to that University, they chose the Marquis Steward for the Year ensuing. And the next Day his Ld-ship had the Degree of Doctor of the Civil Law conferred upon him, by the said University.

As soon as the Soldiers, who are employed in levelling the Roads on Windsor-Forest, have completed the same, which will be next Month, his Majesty has given Orders for 400 of them to be employed in levelling and cutting new Walks in Lower-Park at Windsor, which was begun in the Reign of Q. Anne. The said Soldiers are to be incamped on Datchet Common.

Yesterday the Rev. Dr. Salter preached before their Majesties, his R. H. the P. of Wales, and the three eldest Princesses, in the Royal Chappel at Windsor; The R. Hon. the Earl of Peterborow carried the Sword of State.——And the Rev. Dr. Fowkes preached before his Highness the Duke, and the two youngest Princesses, in his Highness's Apartment.

Last Friday several Custom-House Officers went, according to Information, to a House near St. Mary Magdalen's Church in Southwark, where was lodged a considerable Quantity of Tea and Muslin, with other Goods brought thither by Smugglers. The Officers found the Goods; but the Smugglers made Resistance with Fire-Arms; so that only 57 lb. of Tea, and five Pieces of Muslin were seized; and the Smugglers made off with the rest on Horseback, loudly menacing all Opposers.

We hear the Royal Family will forbear Hunting in Windsor Forest till the Rains fall; the Ground being so dry and full of Cracks, that the Feet of the Horses and Dogs are very much damaged.

Rob. &c. Last Saturday one Hannah White was committed to Newgate, on the Oath of Hendrick Lisse, for stealing out of his Shop a Thread-Poplin Gown.——Besides those formerly mentioned. 15 other Felons, &c. are since brought to Newgate from other Jails, in order to take their Trials at the ensuing Sessions at the Old Baily, which begins Friday next.——Yesterday Morn. about One, a Journeyman Baker, going thro' Lincoln's-Inn Passage, was, by three Ruffains, robbed of 2s. (all the Money he had) and stabbed with a Penknife in several Places; one of the Villains is secured.——The same Morn. between Three and Four, three Gentlemen were robbed, near the Middle of Hounslow Heath, by four Highwaymen, well mounted on Black and Dark-Bay Geldings. They took from them their Money, Watches, Rings, &c. to about 20l. Value, and made off with their Booty towards Staines. Several Persons were robbed the Night before on that Road, as is supposed by the same Adventurers.

Pref. His Majesty has been pleased to appoint Melchior-Guy Dickens, Esq; to be his Secretary at the Prussian Court.

Deaths. Last Week died, at Chester, the Rev. Mr. Oliver, one of the Prebendaries of that Cathedral, in a very advanced Age: His Death is greatly regretted, on account of his many excellent Qualifications.——As did also last Week, at Bethnal-Green, in the 26th Year of his Age, Sir Chamberlaine Beck, of London, Bart. Son of the late Sir Justus Beck, the first Baronet created by his late Majesty K. George, in 1714. He is succeeded in Honour and Estate by his next Brother, now Sir Justus Beck, Bart.——And much about the same Time died, at his House on Turnham-Green, John Elton, Esq; Receiver of the Tenths of the Clergy.

TUESDAY, August 25.

The Constables of St. Paul's Covent-Garden and St. Martin's in the Fields, are ordered to attend Sir John Gonson and his Assistants, at the next Meeting, and to lay before the said Justices an Account in Writing of all Night Houses and other disorderly Places in their respective Wards, to the End that when the Licences are renewed (which by the late Act of Parliament they are required to be the next Month) Care may be taken to prevent those Houses, as well as such others as are under Prosecution, from having any more Licences granted them, to sell Liquors of any Kind.——And, for the more effectual suppressing such Receptacles of Vagabonds, &c. the said Justices are resolved to put in Execution the 3° Car. 1. Cap. 3. whereby every Person keeping an Alehouse, &c. without Licence from the Justices of the Peace, forfeits 20s. to the Poor of the Parish where the Offence is committed, to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Offender's Goods, and in Default of Distress, and the Penalty not paid in six Days, to be publicly whipped: For the second Offence the Offender is to be committed to the House of Correction for one Month, there to be dealt with as a lewd, idle and disorderly Person: And for the third Offence to be committed to the House of Correction, as aforesaid, and not to be inlarged from thence but by Order of Sessions. "With Pleasure I perceive, that "it is not only Sir J. Gonson and his Crew (see our last) who "are playing the Devil for G——d's Sake with R——s "and W——s:" For they write from St. Margaret's-Hill, Southwark; That the Justices of the Peace of that Neighbourhood, having Information, that lately several idle and disorderly Persons are come to reside in or near the said Borough, they issued out their Warrants to the Constables, to apprehend and bring before their Worships all such Vagrants, &c. they should find, to be treated as the Law directs. Pursuant to this Order, a scarce credible Number of such Cattle are apprehended, and some taken Care of. Eliz. Gibbs is sent to the County Jail, for picking the Pocket of Caleb Leming of 18s. and 10d. As is also John Duckett, for want of Securities for his Appearance the next Quarter-Sessions, for molesting the Constables in the Execution of their Office, and for aiding and assisting a certain Female of ill Fame to make her Escape from Confinement. And as for the rest, many were discharged, being either very young Sinners, or some reputable Persons appeared in their Behalf: But 25, who could not give any Manner of Account how they subsist, nor had any of Credit who would own their Acquaintance, are ordered to hard Labour in a proper Place; of which Number no fewer than 22 are notorious lewd Females.

The above-mentioned Rattle Snake is not yet taken. It was seen again Yesterday; but there being Quantities of Lumber in the Ship's Hold, which shelter it, and the Bite of those Creatures being judged incurable, and generally attended with present Death, their Teeth being hollow, thro' which their Venom is conveyed from the Gums (which swell when they are angry) into the Wounds they make, till that is removed, it is unsafe to attempt taking it.

"Under July 31, a Merchant from Messina, in Sicily, "writes thus; viz." In respect to the present Conjucture of depending Apprehensions, as to War or Peace, we live in Hopes the latter will continue; but if otherwise, we are given to understand, by Declaration of the Ministers of this Government, that if the former succeeds, the Emperor our Sovereign wills and commands, that all the Articles of our Scala Franca be inviolably maintained, and that Foreign Merchants of all Nations shall remain without Molestation, and even those, with whose Sovereigns there shall be actual War.

Casual. Some Days ago a poor Woman was found hanging on a Tree in the Road between Greenwich and Woolwich (a Child of about a Year old sitting near her on the Ground) by Persons who cut her down, and soon brought her to herself, when she told them: It was Fear of Starving had induced her to that Act. And last Sunday Morn. the same Woman was found dead, hanging on a Tree in an Orchard in Plumsted Parish, near Woolwich.——Also a few Days since, the York Stage-Coachman, coming to Town, saw a Woman hanging in the Wood the other Side of Highgate. He instantly ran and cut her down; when finding some Sypmtoms of Life, the Passengers took her into the Coach, and carried her to Highgate, where after some Time she recovered. The Occasion of her committing this Violence on herself, was the Distress she was reduced to by being left by her Husband, who is gone to Ireland; from whom, however, she parted by Consent.——Were Charity, Humanity, Fellow-feeling and Good-nature Things less unfashionable than they are, at this present Writing, as we say, I should be apt to prick down these Females among the rest of my Lunatics: But Starving is certainly a very comfortless Article in Life. Yet one would wonder how any can dread actual Starving, at least now, since our Advices, from almost every Part of the Country, all agree, that they have, this Year, one of the best Harvests within Memory.——About Seven Yesterday Morn. the House of Mr. Oliver, a Tailor, in Pall-Mall, took Fire, and could not be extinguished till its whole Inside was intirely consumed. It was rebuilding and near finished. The Workmen's Tools had the same Fate; which was too small an Attonement for their Carelessness in heating their Glue-Pot amidst Heaps of Shavings.

Rob. &c. Saturday last, Mr. Hill, Attorney at Law, going to Richmond, in his Chaise, was robbed of a Silver Watch and 17s. by three Foot-pads, on Putney-Common.

Deaths. Last Friday, died, in Child-Bed, the Wife of Mr. Hawley, Gentleman-Usher to his R. H. the P. of Wales.——As did, the Day following, Madam Reading, of Sion-College.——And Yesterday Morn. Capt. Rich. Devon, (who formerly commanded divers Merchant Ships, but was late a very noted Rope-maker) was found dead in his Bed, at his House in Rygate. He complained of some slight Disorder the Night before; but seemed not apprehensive of the least Danger.

WEDNESDAY, August 26.

By an Express from his Excellency Mr. Keene, the South-Sea Company have received the Cedula for the Admission of their Ship P. Wm. (commanded by Capt. Cleland) at Cartagena and Port Boello: This Cedula is said to be in such strong Terms, and so very full and clear, as to exceed all they have yet had, and will certainly prevent the Abuses and Impositions with which their Trade has hitherto been attended.——By the same Express came Letters from Cazalla, dated the 19th Inst. N. S. where a Courier is arrived, who brought that Court the joyful News of the Ships which composed the Flota having all safely arrived at Cadiz two Days before, from Vera Cruz.

The Spaniards before Gibraltar have at length permitted the Land-Gate of that Place to be opened, and the Garrison to have Intercourse with the Country for Provisions; a Favour they have been denied ever since the last Siege commenced.

The South-Sea Company's Greenland Ship, the Unicorn, said, in one of our former to have run on the Gunfleet, is since got off again, beyond all Hope or Expectation.

By the last Advices from Panama, the Company's Trade was current in those Parts.

Col. Chateris has presented to his Majesty, a most humble Petition praying to be restored to his Estates, forfeited by his late Attainder.

Yesterday Morn. Money was sent from the Pay-Office in Broad-Street, down to the Nore, to pay the Wages due to the Company of his Majesty's Sloop Weazle, to the 31st of last December.——And this Day, the following of his Majesty's Ships will be recalled at the said Office, for short Allowance, viz.

Also this Day the Half-Pay Officers, of the Land Forces and Marines, begin to receive six Months Pay, at the Pay-Master-General's Office at the Horse-Guards, viz. to the 24th of June last: Presently after which Payments, the Chelsea-College Out-Pensioners will be paid off to the said Time.

Sir John Gonson, the Chairman, and the Committee of Westminster Justices, met again Yesterday, at Covent-Garden

Vestry, and bound over to the Sessions several more Persons for keeping noted Brothels and other disorderly Houses, and examined several lewd Men and Women, apprehended the Night before at those Places. Four of the most notorious were committed to hard Labour in Tothill-Fields Bridewell; the rest were discharged.——"This will do Execu-"cution."

Casual. Yesterday, opposite to the Plantation-Office, Whitehall, a Hackney-Coachman driving furiously to take up a Fare, had such a Toss from his Seat Head foremost on the Stones, that it is judged is he cannot survive.

The five young Highwaymen, lately taken at or near Windsor, are still in Reading Jail: Nor are they to be tried this Sessions at the Old Baily, as was expected, the same being postponed for some material Reasons.

Last Week, a Goldsmith of Bristol was taken into Custody, being charged with counterfeiting the Current Coin: His House being searched, upwards of 700 Pieces of Counterfeit Coin, with several of his Working Materials, were found; and his Trial is to come on at the ensuing Bristol Sessions, which begins next Week.

Rob. &c. Mr. Pearse, a Dealer in Horses, having lately brought up several Horses from Derbyshire to the Livery-Stable at the Py'd-Horse Inn in Chiswell-Street, was most gentilely bit by a certain Sharper, who went last Saturday to see them, said he was a Farrier, and bought one for 16l. giving Half a Guinea Earnest; but he told Mr. Pearse he must try him, and if he would take another Horse and ride with him to Weybridge he would pay him the Money, and bear his Charges: This was agreed to; and at Weybridge the pretended Farrier purchased a Pair of Pistols, and both came back to Richmond, where our Chap gave our Horse-Merchant the Slip.——The disconsolate Mr. Pearse is still roaming anxiously around the Country, in quest of his Horse, or the Rider, which last is, very probably well enough pleased with his Half-Guinea Purchase.

Pref. His Majesty has been pleased to grant unto Sir Philip Medows, Knt. and the R. Hon. Ld. Visc. Middleton, the Office of Comptrollers for the Accompts of the Army.——And to present the Rev. Mr. Dan. De Bat, A. M. to the Rectory of Holdenby in the County of Northampton and Diocese of Peterborow, void by the Death of the Rev. Mr. Dan. Amiand.

THURSDAY, August 27.

Yesterday's Mail from Paris brings full Confirmation of the Birth of M. the Duke d'Anjou, which happened Aug. 30. N. S. about Nine in the Forenoon, at Versailles. Her most Christian Majesty is very well, and had a very good Time, being scarce three Hours in Labour.——His Majesty, our Sovereign, was pleased to order a Purse of 100 Guineas to the French Courier who brought this News to Windsor.

When the last Express came away from Cazalla, the Court of Spain was hurrying thence for Port Santa Maria, to see the Flota, which arrived at Cadiz the 6th Inst. They talk of the Amount of 44 Millions of Crowns brought thereon, of which more Treasure is for the King of Spain's Account, than has come at once since his Accession to the Throne.

Yesterday the Directors of the East-India Company resolve to take into their Service 13 Ships for the Year ensuing; whereof four are for China, two for Bombay, one for Mocha, one for Bencolen, the rest for Madrass and Bengall.——They have also resolved to begin their Sale with Pepper and other weighable Goods, on the 29th of next Month.

Yesterday Morn. was paid, at the India House in Leadenhall-Street, the Wages due to the Company of the Ship Lynn, lately arrived from East-India.

Also Yesterday a Board of Treasury was held at the Cockpit Whitehall, when several Vacancies in the Customs were disposed of.

Divers Officers belonging to his Majesty's Mint at the Tower, have Orders to attend the Trial of the Bristol Goldsmith, who is (as has been observed above) taken up there for dealing in Monies of his own Manufacture. The Sessions there begins next Tuesday; and John Scrope of Walmsly, in the County of Oxford, Mem. of Parl. for and Recorder of Bristol, sets out next Saturday for the said City, and for the same Purpose.

Tuesday last, a Committe of Council sate at the Cockpit, Whitehall, on the Affair of Tomkyns and Wood, Competitors for making the best Iron with Pit-Coal Fire; when on the Part of Tomkyns was produced (among various other Specimens) a curious Piece of Scrole Work with Foliage, and a Bridle Bit; infallible Proofs of the Goodness of his Iron; since the very best of Iron is required for these Purposes. And at Conclusion, on his own Part was made (tho' declined by the opposite Party) an Offer to confirm, by ocular Demonstration, the Truth of all Particulars relating to his Method of making Iron with the aforesaid Fuel.

Now let us advance what we farther learn of this so-much-noised Manufacture, by a Letter from Whitehaven, viz. This third Day of August, 1730, a farther Trial was made of several Bars of Mr. Wood's Iron, at the Shop of Rob. Bowman, Anchor-Smith on Whitehaven Key, in the Presence of several Justices of the Peace, and great Numbers of the chief Gentlemen, Merchants, Custom-house Officers, and other Inhabitants: There were also a great many of chief the Smiths present, and a thorough Trial was made of the said Iron, and nothing like a Horseshoe could be made of it, tho' a great many Essays were made, the Iron still broke in Pieces at the first, second or third Heat. Seven of the chief Smiths of the Town have joined in a full Account of this Matter, which is sent to the King and Council, and several of Mr. Wood's Agents being there, they were desired over and over to bring any other Smith to work any of Mr. Wood's Iron in that public Manner, and particularly one Rawling then present, a Smith who used to cry up Mr. Wood's Iron; but he and the rest of Mr. Wood's Friends refused so to do, as nothing can be made of it without a great deal more labour and Expence of Coals and Time than the Iron is worth.——"So much for Mr. Wood's "Project, which, to all Appearance, dies with the Pro-"jector."

Yesterday a Cricket Match was played on Walworth Common between —— Steed, Esqi and three other Kentish Gentlemen, on the one Part, and four Exeter Men on the other, for a considerable Wager, when the latter had the Advantage very considerably.

The same Day began the Sessions at Guildhall, when a Bill of Indictment was found against Tho. Hassel, late of the Gen. Post-Office, for opening a Letter and taking thence a 50l. Bank-Note. About 60 Fugitives went thither from the Fleet, in order to be discharged by Virtue of the late Act of Parl. for Relief of Insolvent Debtors; but by Reason of the Multiplicity of Business, they are put off till next Tuesday.

By a private Letter from the Hague, dated Sept. 1. we learn that, last Week a Dutch Minister at Viana, three Leagues from Utrecht, absconded by Night from that Place, being accused of Sodomy, not only by and with some of those who have been lately executed, but by others whom he has endeavoured to seduce to that unnatural Crime; and it is said he was so hardened in his Iniquity, that he has attempted to prove, from Passages of Scripture, that it was not only a Sin, but a Practice more acceptable to the Deity, than the Love of Women!——The Devil's in the Dutch!

Rob. Last Tuesday Morn. about Three, two Bath Coaches going thither, were robbed, on Gravel-Hill beyond Newbury, by one Highwayman; and about Four the two Bath Coaches coming for London, were robbed near the Turnpike on this Side Newbury, also by a single Adventurer.——Yesterday Morn. that expert Diver, Luke Powel, al. Capt. Hop (so called for his going with a great Crutch, pretending to be lame, and being Capt. of a Gang of Pickpockets, who nightly infest Temple-Bar, and Parts adjacent) was committed to Tothill-Fields Bridewell, by Sir John Gonson, being apprehended late on Tuesday Night. When the Constables, &c. searched him, they found about him Half a Dozen such very good new Handkerchiefs, that fully convinced the By-Standers of the Captai'n's uncommon Penetration, as well as Dexterity in his Business; since he not only knows how to pick but likewise how to cull his Handkerchiefs.——John Davis was, also the same Day, committed to Newgate, on the Oath of one Row, for privately stealing from on Board a Vessel in Billingsgate Dock, a Blue Jacket; and on a strong Suspicion of stealing other Goods.

Deaths. Last Friday died the Rev. Mr. Benj. Bewicke, Minister of Hallaton in Leicestershire, aged upwards of 70. His Estate, which is very considerable, descends to his Nephew, Mr. Calverley Bewicke, a Portugal Merchant of this City.

FOREIGN NEWS.——Arrived Mails.——Friday; one from Holland.——Sunday; one from France and one from Flanders.——Tuesday; one from Holland.——Wednesday; one from France.

Florence, Aug. 8. A Rumour is spread that the Grand Duke and the Duke of Parma are endeavouring to persuade the Emperor to consent to the Introduction of 6000 Spaniards into Italy; and it is moreover given out, that the Pope has by Writing exhorted the King of Spain to suspend, for one Month only, the Italian Expedition, not doubting but within that Time to prevail with the Emperor to give his Consent.

Extract of a Private Letter from Compiegne, dated Aug. 18. N. S.

We are still in the Dark as to Peace or War. The Ministers of Spain continue pressing this Court for the Departure of the Succours, notwithstanding several Couriers have been dispatched, with new Proposals or Draughts of Expedients, as we are credibly informed, to accommodate Matters by opening a new Negociation.——Our Advices from Spain agree, that the Queen has the Immediate Execution of the concerted Measures the more at Heart, because the King grows so Valetudinary, and unsettled in his State of Health, that sometimes he faints away twice or thrice in a Day: But some People imagine, that the very Consideration which spurs her Catholic Majesty on to Action, will be a Motive to certain other Powers to clog the Wheels a little.——We hear that Count Kinski has had some Words with the Cardinal, upon his Eminency's complaining to him of the Emperor's Obstinacy in refusing to concede in any one Point.——We are told, it was proposed to the King, thro' the secret Intrigues of Spain, to associate the Duke du Maine with Cardinal Fleury, which coming to the Cardinal's Ears, by means of the King himself, his Eminency parryed the Blow: Nevertheless, the Duke du Maine and the Count de Toulouse are commonly called here, the Spanish Party.——Marshal Villars and M. Dangervilliers are not for attempting a Descent in Italy now as the Emperor has the Flower of his Army there; and they do not stick to mention the Difficulties such an Enterprize will be attended with: But take this along with you; both those Gentlemen are rather for attacking his Imperial Majesty on the Rhine, or in the Netherlands, which France may one Day re-unite to her Domains.——Some Men would persuade us, however, that the Finances of this Kingdom are not in a State good enough to imbark in a War: Most of the Pensions, they observe, are all paid; the Revenues hardly answering up to the Disbursements: And this they will have to be a great Motive of the Cardinal's pacific Conduct; and if it be a true one, it is certainly a very wise one.

We have it from good Hands, that a particular Account is drawing up at the Court of Prussia, in order to obtain Redress of the Grievances of Religion in the Empire; with this Clause; That if the said Grievances be not speedily accommodated in a friendly Way, the Protestant States are intitled, by the Treaty of Westphalia, and by several other Treaties and particular Conventions, to use Reprizals against the Roman-Catholic Princes and their Subjects.

Amsterdam, Sept. 1. A War now seems to be beyond all Question. An Express is arrived at Paris from Spain, whose Dispatches confirm the Resolution of that Court to undertake the Expedition this Year; and Letters from Barcelona say, they have actually begun to put the Ammunition and Provisions on board; so that the Fleet might sail the latter End of August, or the Beginning of September. On the other hand, the Emperor is guarding against them as well as he can. His Troops in Lombardy are all upon the Hoof; and 12,000 of them are forthwith to garrison the Grand Duke of Tuscany's chief Towns. Prince Eugene (they say) is to command on that Side, and Count Merci in Calabria. Mr. Walpole is upon the Point of setting out from Paris, on his Return to England; but Count Koningsek designed to tarry there till he hears of the Departure of the Spanish Fleet. The Electoral Princess of Saxony is brought to Bed of a Prince.

FOREIGN PORTS.

Leghorn, Aug. 19. Notwithstanding the frequent Alarms we receive from the Motions of the Spaniards and Imperialists, yet the Court of Florence appears in perfect Tranquillity: Our Trade continues stagnated, and within 14 Days past we have had Bankrupts in this City to the Amount of 400,000 Dollars.

Barcelona, Aug. 20. The Transports have received one Month's advanced Pay, and they continue taking up all proper Ships which offer; but to such as now enter, they allow but 15 Days advanced Pay. The Artillery and other warlike Stores are all carried from the Arsenal to the Mole, for shipping off, and every thing seems ready for dispatching the Fleet on the Expedition; but when they will depart, or for what Place, is a grand Secret.

Alicante, Aug. 16. The Preparations for the Expedition go forward, and the Troops are ready to imbark on the first Notice. We have now quartered in this Town, nine Battalions, and many more in the Neighbourhood.

Cadiz, Aug. 15. They are now very busy in shipping off Shot, Shells, and other warlike Stores on board the Transports, which will soon sail to join the Fleet at Barcelona; and our Intendant is daily expecting Orders from Court for taking more Ships into his Majesty's Service.

At the Deſire of Mr. DANIEL HARROD, this Publick Notice is given,

THAT five large Stones, with many others of leſſer Sizes, and great Quantities of Gravel, were voided by him, by only drinking the WATERS of PANCRAS WELLS a few Days: Of whom more Satisfaction may be had, at his Houſe in Hedge-Row in Iſlington; or at Mr. RICHARD BRISTOW'S, Goldſmith, near Bride-Lane in Fleetſtreet; where theſe Stones may be ſeen: And the Pancras Mineral WATERS, as alſo Briſtol and Bath WATERS.

Are ſold, and deliver'd to any Part of London, the two former at 6*s.* and the latter at 7*s.* 6*d. per* Dozen, Bottles and all.

Beſides the Virtues of the PANCRAS WATERS, in curing the Stone and Gravel, the Strangury, ſuppreſſion of Urine, and all Obſtructions and Ulcerations of the Kidneys, Ureters or Bladder, they are equally ſucceſsful in the King's Evil, the Scurvy, Leproſy, Surfeits, Fiery Itchings, Blains, Puſtules or Breakings out, and Inflamations of any Kind in any Part of the Body; they wonderfully purify and ſweeten the Blood and Juices, cleanſe and heal internal and external Ulcers, tho' of the moſt corroſive Nature, and effectually cure Weakneſs of either Sex, from what Cauſe ſoever proceeding, in a few Days. Several other Diſtempers, they are greatly ſerviceable in, which, and the manner of taking them, is added to Mr. HARROD'S more particular Account of his Caſes, and may be had at Mr. Briſtow's, where theſe Waters are only ſold in London, to be depended upon as genuine.

N.B. The Pancras Waters Anſwer all the Ends of the Waters of Holtin Wiltſhire with this Advantage, that a much leſs Quantity of them is neceſſary to be taken in the Cure of any Diſtemper; they are very grateful to the Taſte, agree well with, and exceedingly ſtrengthen the Stomach, will keep many Years without loſing their Virtue, and may be taken in any Seaſon.

N.B. Mr. David Thomas, who keeps the Bowling Greens in Cupid's Gardens, Lambeth, deſires it may be publiſh'd, that by only once drinking the Waters of he voided a great deal of Gravel, and a large Worm; he had been afflicted with violent Fits of the Gravel, and gnawing Pains at his Stomach, for ſome Years before, but has continued perfectly free from both Complaints ever ſince the 8th of February laſt, which was the firſt time he drank theſe Waters. He is now in the 65th Year of his Age.
